With a pre-sale estimate of $6,000-$8,000, the Baignoire Cartier 18kt yellow gold and diamond ladies' watch, made around 2010, will probably finish as a top lot. The watch, having a gold link bracelet with a double clasp closure, features a diamond pave bezel surrounding an ellipse shaped dial with a silver matte finish and gold Roman numerals, plus a diamond winder.

The ladies' 18kt yellow gold Patek Philippe watch is bracelet form with a blue dial and a Patek Philippe stamp to the clasp, with an adjustable bracelet (est. $1,000-$3,000). Also offered is a Konstantino 18kt yellow gold and diamond Roman coin necklace, circa 2010-2018, the faux Roman coin surrounded with pave accent diamonds (est. $3,500-$4,500).

Tole painting is the folk art of decorative painting on tin and wooden utensils, objects and furniture. The sale features a 19th century French tole painted daybed in the campaign style with various Napoleonic scenes for decoration (est. $1,500-$2,500); and a rustic antique tole painted grape harvesting basket with an armorial and reading 'Chateau de la Bernarde' (est. $300-$500).

Furniture will feature a monumental contemporary pine table having a paneled top with butterfly cleats and raised on a diamond-shaped cast concrete base (est. $1,500-$2,500); and a pair of circa 1980s Art Deco style lacquered wood and upholstered club chairs having upholstered backs in salmon textured mohair, with emerald green lacquered swan arms (est. $800-$1,200).

The silver category will be led by an English sterling silver serving tray (London, 1783), rococo handled form with foliate scroll border, a maker's mark ("WC") and weighing a total of 167.7 oz. troy (est. $2,000-$4,000); and an English George III sterling silver tea and coffee pot (London, 1817 and 1827), with maker's marks for William Eley, each decorated with animals and birds, weighing a combined 49.03 oz. troy (est. $800-$1,200).

Asian objects will include a wonderful framed pair of Chinese hand-stenciled and painted wallpaper panels decorated with bird-filled trees and rockwork, 98 ½ inches tall by 51 inches wide (est. $2,000-$4,000); and a large, just as wonderful pair of Chinese turquoise glaze terracotta foo dogs on stands, depicting a female with a cub and a male with a ball, each one seated, wearing a teeth-bearing expression, 42 inches tall (est. $1,500-$2,500).

Decorative accessories will include a pair of Edwardian mahogany architectural doors with hand-painted classical-style vignettes, to include crouching female sphinxes and classical muses en grisaille in medallions, 96 inches by 25 inches (est. $1,000-$2,000); and an early 1900s Georgian style carved wood swan form jardiniere having a paint and gilt decorated surface and three swan neck supports on tripod scroll feet (est. $250-$450).

Baignoire Cartier 18kt yellow gold and diamond ladies' watch, circa 2010, with a diamond pave bezel surrounding an ellipse shaped dial with a silver matte finish (est. $6,000-$8,000).
