

An Evening "In The Moment" with G. Fields

ATLANTA, GA, USA, April 24, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- After charting #4 on the jazz charts G. Fields dropped his much-anticipated album "In The Moment" April 15, 2022. A lot of fans were curious as to where this Saxophonist came from, with his melodic undertones and ability to intertwine Jazz and Hip Hop.

When asked where his inspiration came from? G. Fields had this to say "I've been in love with hip hop since 1987. I've toured all over the world with some of your favorite artist, but I had to tap back into my childhood and pick back up the saxophone. This album was a process, it took me a year to make sure my audience could understand the fusion between Jazz and Hip Hop."

With over 300k streams from his single "In The Moment" several celebrities tapped in to show their support and urged fans to download the single. Some of the celebrities that indorsed G. Fields single included Ced the Entertainer, Slim for the group 112, Lalah Hathaway, Anthony Anderson and so many more.
