

Saudi Arabia Camel Dairy Market 2021-2026: Trends, Growth, Analysis, Demand and Outlook

SHERIDAN, WYOMING, UNITED STATES, April 25, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- According to the latest report by IMARC Group, titled "Saudi Arabia Camel Dairy Market: Industry Trends, Share, Size, Growth, Opportunity and Forecast 2021-2026," the Saudi Arabia camel dairy market is expected to continue its moderate growth during the forecast period (2021-2026).

Saudi Arabia Camel Dairy Market Report

Camel dairy includes the products manufactured using the milk extracted from camels. These products are a rich source of essential proteins, vitamins, iron and fats. Milk powder, pasteurized milk, cheese, ice cream, ghee, Laban, yogurt, flavored milk and infant formula are some commonly available variants. In comparison to the traditionally used cow milk, camel milk is more nutritious and contains higher amounts of magnesium, antioxidants, potassium, copper, sodium, vitamin A and C. Regular consumption of camel dairy products can aid in improving behavioral and cognitive abilities and minimizing the risks of developing cancer, heart diseases and diabetes.

As the novel coronavirus (COVID-19) crisis takes over the world, we are continuously tracking the changes in the markets, as well as the industry behaviours of the consumers globally and our estimates about the latest market trends and forecasts are being done after considering the impact of this pandemic.

Saudi Arabia Camel Dairy Market Trends:

The Saudi Arabia camel dairy market is primarily being driven by the increasing prevalence of lactose intolerance and diabetes among the masses. Camel dairy products aid in lowering blood sugar levels, improving lipid profile and reducing insulin resistance. Moreover, various product innovations, such as the launch of camel milk in flavors, such as chocolate, strawberry, butterscotch and banana, are providing a thrust to the market growth. Consumers are also preferring flavored camel dairy products as they contain high levels of proteins and can assist in meeting the calcium requirements of the children. Other factors, including rising health consciousness and changing dietary habits of the consumers, along with the increasing number of camel farms across the region, are anticipated to drive the market toward growth.
