Taylor Chevrolet has sold both new and used cars to hundreds of customers, gathering quite the raving reviews which can be found on their website. They not only sell cars, but they also make sure to give back to their communities, partnering up with local charities and organizations in support of them.

"Chris was so good to us. I wasn't sure if I should buy my Trax or get a new Equinox and he took the time to help us weigh my options. He went out of his way to find the car that would be best for me." –Sharon V.

"I was impressed with the steady communication from our Service Advisor Jen Hostetler. She kept us updated with any new information, and provided pictures via text to help show us what was found. I have heard stories from people who drop their car off at a dealership and have to keep calling the dealership to find out what is happening with their car. I was pleasantly surprised at how quickly my car was diagnosed and repaired." –George A.
