

Palm Beach County Police Benevolent Association Endorses Michelle Oyola McGovern for PBC Commission, District 6

PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, April 25, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Palm Beach County Police Benevolent Association (PBCPBA) has endorsed Michelle Oyola McGovern's campaign for Palm Beach County Commission, District 6.

The Palm Beach County Police Benevolent Association is an association for law enforcement personnel representing over 5,000 deputies, police, and correctional officers from Palm Beach, Martin and St. Lucie Counties.

"I am honored to receive the support of these dedicated women and men who put their lives on the line every day to keep our community safe. As County Commissioner, I will prioritize public safety, support our police, and work to ensure our first responders have the resources, equipment, and training they need to do their job," said Michelle Oyola McGovern.

This latest endorsement adds to Michelle's growing list which also already includes more than 25 local elected officials.

Michelle Oyola McGovern has over two decades of policy, governmental, and community experience. Michelle began her career in public service with the Florida Department of Children and Families. Her career led her to work for U.S. Senator Bill Nelson, first in his D.C. office and then as his regional Director for the Palm Beaches and the Treasure Coast. Michelle's job involved meeting with community and local elected leaders to discuss policy initiatives and identify federal dollars to support local projects. A proactive leader, Michelle was promoted to serve as Senator Nelson's Statewide Director overseeing a team of 10 regional directors and staff across seven regional offices throughout Florida. Michelle worked in these public advocacy roles with Senator Nelson for 18 years.

Michelle now serves as the Director of Government and Community Relations for a major healthcare system. She focuses on creating, guiding, and promoting positive relationships. Her work to help local leaders and the community navigate important health and medical issues over the last two years has provided Michelle with essential experience that will prove critical as our county deals with the impacts of COVID-19 and other issues.

Michelle also currently serves - or has served - on numerous organizations, including past President and Member of the Board of Directors of the Forum Club of the Palm Beaches; founding Member and President of West Palm 100; past President and Member of the Board of Directors of SunFest; Trustee of the Chamber of Commerce of the Palm Beaches; President's Circle Member (Trustee) for the Wellington Chamber of Commerce; and Trustee for the Central Palm Beach County Chamber of Commerce. Michelle is also Treasurer of The Homeless Coalition of Palm Beach County and Chair of the Palm Beach County Advisory Commission on Women, where she continues her advocacy efforts.

Michelle is a proud mom to Emilia and Victoria and wife to John, the Village of Wellington's Vice Mayor. Michelle comes from a large Puerto Rican family, and she is the oldest of four sisters. A trailblazer in her way, Michelle was the first in her family to attend college. Her parents instilled in her a passion for service and the importance of hard work, honesty, and integrity in everything she sets out to accomplish. Michelle, John, and their two daughters live in the Village of Wellington.
