School*

“I highly recommend this driving school. Mr. Faizan – The owner/Instructor is very professional and hands-on in handling trainees. He is a good motivator with a positive attitude and most of all the techniques on how to pass the road test,” says Fe Asilo in his 5-star review.

The trainers and staff at Faizan's Defensive Driving School are dedicated to training their students and believe that driving is an essential skill, and each adult should be aware and prepared for it. This dedication shows significantly in the curated training courses designed by their experienced professionals and is greatly appreciated by the customers.

The best thing about the best driving school in Regina is the customer always mentioned how relaxed they've felt during their training and how the instructors encouraged them to learn and improve. These essential things make Faizan's Defensive Driving School a trustworthy brand that people come to first to learn driving skills.

The courses are not just designed for the type of vehicle or driving skills; it is also curated depending on the student's age. No matter the age, you will always feel welcomed there, even if you want some primary practice before you start learning to drive full time.

"Faizan is a great professional driving instructor with amazing communication skills. He delivers a great service and equips students for driving success. He is very knowledgeable, patient, and punctual. If you need any prep lessons for your road test or looking to do SGI 6 by 6 classes, this is the right place. The way Faizan and the team in their driving school teach how to parallel park in just 3 easy steps is unbelievably easy. He will undoubtedly deliver great value for your money as he did for me." Says another satisfied customer, Peter Tah.

Besides the different courses mentioned above, they also have a pre-licensing course to help students who never have driven before, and it's their first experience. With a 98% test passing score, no wonder more clients are glad to learn from the best driving school in Regina.
