

Everything Home Talk Show Launches Their Socially Conscious Marketplace

A groundbreaking resource platform for consumers to shop and give to Patriotic causes.

SCOTTSDALE, AZ, USA, April 26, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Today, patriot pioneer Michele Swinick launched the Everything Home Marketplace, a revolutionary platform that empowers consumers to donate to pro-freedom causes that support vets, pets, kids, and freedom - without spending an extra dime.

The purpose-driven Marketplace showcases and promotes businesses, corporations, organizations, and individuals who believe in the American Dream. The platform features widely recognized brands and products, such as MyPillow, Omaha Steaks, immune system supplements from Dr. Zev Zelenko, Patriotic gear from Flagshirt.com, and preparedness items and meal kits from My Patriot Supply and BrighteonStore.com, among many others.

American consumers can now give to causes they support without spending an extra dime. Our Marketplace makes giving great again by partnering with businesses who donate a portion of the purchase price”

Michele Swinick - Host & Founder of Everything Home

“This socially conscious marketplace is the perfect referral network for patriots to support each other,” remarked Swinick. “Far too often, Americans feel the frustration of their dollars going to left-leaning corporations, who use their profits to advance Critical Race Theory and other divisive, fringe-Left ideologies. Now, we’re turning the tide with our Marketplace.”

The platform takes community-powered philanthropy to the next level with its charitable focus. Each business on the site pledges a percentage of the purchase price to nonprofit partners and groups, giving customers the power to help conservative causes without ever having to personally donate.

"We are empowering American consumers to give to causes they support – without actually spending an extra dime." continued Swinick. "Rising inflation and the increased cost of living imposed by the Biden Administration has squeezed Americans' spending power. It's now harder than ever to donate to causes we support. But our Marketplace makes giving great again by partnering with businesses to donate a portion of the purchase price through our platform. Customers can find fantastic products and services at great prices and exclusive discounts for our shoppers – and their dollars will make a real, tangible impact in supporting patriotic causes."
