

Malcom-Jamal Warner & Dashill Smith Performing Music By A Tribe Called Quest, Jazz Style, Streaming at Volume.com

Shows Will Be Streamed Live From Venkman's in Atlanta, GA

ATLANTA, GA, USA, April 26, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On Saturday, April 30th, the legendary hip-hop group, A Tribe Called Quest's music will be showcased at Venkman's. In this dynamic show, Dashill Smith & Malcolm-Jamal Warner with their band recreate some of the original songs that were sampled by A Tribe Called Quest through the years while morphing into the ATCQ songs we all know and love. The shows are at 7 and 10 PM.

Malcom-Jamal Warner is most famously known as Theodore Huxtable from The Cosby Show and he currently stars as Dr. AJ Austin on FOX's The Resident. Many however don't know he is an accomplished musician. In 2015, he won a Grammy for Best Traditional R&B Performance for his song "Jesus Children of America" with Robert Glasper Experiment featuring Lalah Hathaway.

The show also features Music Director/ bassist Khari Cabral Simmons, Landon Anderson, drums, David Whild, guitar, Mike Walton on saxophone, and Rodney Edge on keyboards. Created & produced by Next Level Events.

Both the 7 PM and 9 PM Shows are sold-out but you can still purchase tickets to the live streams which will be available on Volume.com
