/EINPresswire.com/ -- Coffee and Cars, in partnership with POST HTX, is pleased to announce their return, at their new location POST HTX, starting May 7th from 9am-11am located at 401 Franklin St, Houston, TX 77201.

Coffee and Cars: C&C today stands as the largest event of its kind with over 4,000-6,000 attendees on a monthly basis. C&C is an informal gathering of car hobby enthusiasts who meet and share the same passion for automobiles. C&C started 18 years ago with the idea to share this passion for amazing machines of all types and to showcase unique models to enthusiasts of all ages, machines that otherwise they'd never get a chance to see in person. Everyone is welcome. There are no memberships or dues required to participate.

POST HTX: The former Barbara Jordan Post Office building has been turned into a vibrant 550,000-square-foot cultural hub, mixing concert venue and co-working spaces with restaurants, bars and an international Market Hall. Called POST Houston, the venue is highly impressive throughout, but the most striking feature is the Skylawn Rooftop. The five-acre rooftop includes seven distinct gardens, a skyline promenade, event space, a stage, a game space all framed by amazing 360° views of Houston... and much more.

Since its inception, Coffee and Cars has always captured the interest of car collectors, spectator enthusiasts, and unique partners. There will be plenty to see and experience including unique giveaways from Continental Tires and others. Come join us and see Houston's most incredible
