

Create COLORME Heart Art on Mother's Day Weekend at BEG Bakery & Creamery in Scottsdale

Debra Murrow, founder of COLORME Art Spa, will lead Moms and their guests in creating unique, one-of-a-kind colorful heart art necklaces.

SCOTTSDALE, AZ, UNITED STATES, April 27, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Celebrate Heart Art with Mom at BEG Bakery & Creamery in Scottsdale with COLORME Art Spa founder and artist Debra Lee Murrow on Saturday, May 7th, 4pm-7pm. Debra will lead Moms and their guests in creating unique, one-of-a-kind colorful heart art necklaces.

Debra will lead Moms and their guests to create their own beautiful art necklace. Guests will create their own special design on shrink plastic, while enjoying yummy treats and delicious coffee. Debra will lead her heart art sessions @4pm, 5pm, and 6pm. Guests are invited anytime before BEG closes at 7pm.

Custom Heart Art

BEG (acronym for 'butter, egg and gluten free') Bakery & Creamery opened in January 2022, and is owned and operated by Michelle Williams Bonura and family members. The Phoenix New Times recently highlighted the bakery for its vegan and gluten-free offerings, all homemade, all delicious. From soft-serve ice cream, to muffins and coffee cakes, BEG has delicious food to complement your art fun afternoon with Mom.

"We are going to have so much fun creating my heart art necklaces at BEG with Michelle and her team," said Debra Lee Murrow. "It's going to be great fun! I look forward to seeing people come into BEG to get creative, do art, and enjoy some special time with Mom on Mother's Day on Saturday."
