About R&R Cigars

After Reagan graduated law school in 2011, Randy and Reagan decided to open R&R Cigars in Tuscaloosa, to bring a place to relax and recharge from the daily burdens of the stresses of life. In January of 2012 R&R Cigars opened its doors to the public for the first time. By January 2013 R&R celebrated its first anniversary by having Rocky Patel himself come to the anniversary party. A southeast record was set for most boxes sold at an event!

In 2014 Reagan became the youngest Board Member of the International Premium Cigars and Pipes Retailer Association at the age of 26. R&R has since purchased the famous Maxwell House, which is now fondly referred to as The Cigar Mansion. R&R continues to happily serve the Alabama cigar community.
