Artists Signing into a label without understanding financial knowledge is a major loophole in the industry”

Kamyryn Perez

Kamyryn Perez CEO of Fye Music didn't start with an easy career. Battling the hardships he endured in his life while pursuing a full-time music career was extremely difficult at the time. Fast forward to 2019, Kamyryn signed his first partnership deal with Bentley Records- a Sub Label under Warner Bros. Since then, Kam has participated in different partnerships with Soundcloud, Sony Orchard, and took on a role as an A&R with Bentley Records. When looking at new talents, Kamyryn Expressed his emphasis on the artist's character. "Having a unique character is the key to an artist's success" Said Kamyrn. His experience as an A&R and Former Media Executive has well prepared him for his role.

"Artists Signing into a label without understanding financial knowledge is a major loophole in the industry," said CEO Kamyrn Perez. Fye offers more than just artist management & development, being the first label to offer Artist Financial Consultation is the key to helping Artists reach the pinnacle of their careers.

"The world is going through its new transition into the post-pandemic era, the traditional business model will slow down in growth as the new model take place." Said Official ZeZe. In the next 5 years, Fye will focus itself on iO Development as well as the creation and establishment of a Blockchain-powered distribution platform that will allow music lovers to buy in the percentage of their favorite artist's royalties.

Recently, Fye Music Ent has Co-signed Sony Artist Sunnie Quing, Los Angeles artist TŁO, Long Beach artist Wb23min, and Executive Producer Jun5beatz. The Label's intention to expand has never stopped. The rise of the Asian Entertainment Industry such as in Korea & China has caught on to the eye of Fye Music Entertainment. "We look for Talents not just in the US, but around the globe" Said Official ZeZe. The Label's recent partnership with Tencent (QQ Music), NetEase, and other international platforms has allowed the Label to provide its artists with a winning edge on a global scale.
