Don't miss Monday's livecast - Tony Perkins

WOODLAND PARK, COLORADO, UNITED STATES, April 28, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Tony Perkins in Family Research Council's fourth and longest-serving president and will be the guest on the May 2nd livecast.

Recognized as the leading conservative and pro-life voice in the Louisiana Legislature, Perkins was a tireless advocate for the family. To address the growing social problems brought about by the instability of marriage and no-fault divorce, he authored and passed the nation's first Covenant Marriage law in 1997, which captured the attention of policymakers across the country.

During his tenure as FRC's president, Perkins has substantially deepened the organization's influence on Capitol Hill and throughout the country through his frequent attendance at state and regional political and policy events. He has also expanded the organization's reach across the nation by building a major network of pastors and churches, encouraging them to impact the culture by thinking nationally, but acting locally.
