

SoftCo achieves SOC 2 Type 2 Compliance

DUBLIN, IRELAND, April 29, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- SoftCo, a global leader in financial automation software, is pleased to announce that it has successfully completed a SOC 2 examination for its SoftCo10 platform, which is now SOC 2 Type 2 Compliant. SOC 2 is considered the gold standard for validating the security and operational integrity of leading SaaS solutions.

An independent examination, which was completed by Grant Thornton, confirmed that SoftCo's controls relating to the information security practices and operational policies and procedures met or exceeded the rigorous SOC 2 requirements as developed by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA).

“

The successful completion of this SOC 2 Type 2 compliance audit reaffirms the security and integrity of our products and services in line with industry best practices.”

Anton Scott, CEO, SoftCo

Commenting, Anton Scott, CEO of SoftCo Group said:

“Following on from our previous SOC 1 and SOC 2 Type 1 audits during the last year, the successful completion of this SOC 2 Type 2 compliance audit reaffirms the security and integrity of our products and services in line with industry best practices.”
