Qatar's Ministry of Education and Higher Education (MEHE) has announced that it will be launching a new initiative to support the development of the country's education sector. The initiative is aimed at providing financial support to educational institutions and researchers in the field of artificial intelligence (AI) and machine learning (ML). The MEHE has allocated a total of $10 million for this purpose. The funding will be distributed among various institutions and researchers who have submitted proposals for projects in the field of AI and ML. The MEHE has also announced that it will be launching a new program to support the development of the country's education sector.
