Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains forward-looking statements, including statements regarding AmeriCrew's existing and future partnerships in 2022. The words "believe," "may," "estimate," "continue," "anticipate," "intend," "should," "plan," "could," "target," "potential," "is likely," "will," "expect" and similar expressions, as they relate to us, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. We have based these forward-looking statements largely on our current expectations and projections about future events. Some or all of the events anticipated by these forward-looking statements may not occur. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ from those in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, the risks arising from the adverse impacts of increased inflation rates and the Federal Reserve's policy of increasing interest rates in response, supply chain disruptions and consequent limitations on our ability to obtain raw materials as well as similar problems with our independent contractors, vendors and other collaborators, our ability to recruit new employees, potential delays or setbacks in the performance of our contractual obligations, the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic including new variants on the national economy, our inability to raise sufficient capital to sustain our operations and further our business goals as and when needed, the condition of the capital markets and opportunities for microcap companies, and our lack of an operating history as a combined company following our August 2021 reverse merger transaction. Further information on our risk factors is contained in our filings with the SEC, including our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 15, 2022. Any forward-looking statement made by us herein speaks only as of the date on which it is made. Factors or events that could cause our actual results to differ may emerge from time to time, and it is not possible for us to predict all of them. We undertake no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise, except as may be required by law.
