ANDOVER, MASSACHUSETTS, USA, May 3, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Akshaya Patra Foundation USA, one of the largest school lunch providers in the world, is pleased to announce a new partnership with, Massachusetts-based, Abris.io as AP USA declared their first offering of Non Fungible Tokens (NFTs) at their New England gala on May 1st, 2022. By using NFTs, Akshaya Patra is setting a precedent to harness the full potential of technologies to effect positive change.

We are excited to partner with Abris.io, a leading utility NFT company, to raise funds for Akshaya Patra, enabling us to support the 1.8 million underserved Indian children going to school this year”

Navin Goel, CEO Akshaya Patra Foundation USA

Through the organization’s flagship Midday Meal program, this new partnership will address low school enrollment & attendance rates; low socialization rates between different castes and poor nutrition for some of the most underserved children in India.

Akshaya Patra and Abris.io announced the launch of 6 NFTs priced between $20 and $50,000, each serving a specific cause. For more information on these NFTs and how to own them while supporting a noble cause, please visit akshayapatra.abris.io.

Priya Samant, Abris.io CEO and Co-Founder said, “It is our honor and privilege to get an opportunity to support a great organization like Akshaya Patra, to propel its vision of ensuring that hunger is never a barrier to a child’s education. NFTs are community-driven; by using the innovative medium of NFTs for fundraising, nonprofits can reach out to a global user base and
