“Lovingly referred to by its residents as Lake Tippy, the area is a highly sought-after retreat from Fort Wayne and Indianapolis accommodating notable families throughout the year,” stated Jennie Heal, president of Supreme Auctions. “Stonecrest Shores is perfectly poised on the banks of Lake Tippy providing a serene and relaxing setting to enjoy a variety of activities both on and off the lake. It is after all Indiana’s deepest natural lake. In addition, The Tippecanoe Lake Country Club provides the community with time-honored traditions, an 18-hole private golf course, and a renowned location for celebrated events and lakeside dining.”

"I am thrilled to be working with Supreme Auctions on the sale of this property. The home is very grand, memorable, prestigious, and overlooks Lake Tippecanoe from a pinnacle spot on the lake," stated agent, Deb Paton-Showley. "Sunrise lake views are found here in plentitude. Not to mention that the home's construction is completely custom and high-end. The builder Larry Coplen Custom Homes, remains one of the premier builders in the area."

Tucked into the Gateway of the Lakes, Stonecrest Shores offers small-town charm and Old-World nostalgia with its paved brick streets and historic traditions in Leesburg, Indiana. The cobblestone roads welcome visitors all year long, especially on Memorial Day and Fourth of July where brilliant fireworks are displayed over Lake Tippecanoe.
