WESTFIELD, INDIANA, UNITED STATES, May 3, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Multifaceted author Leah Cupps is inciting a passion for rereading the release of her latest title Harley James and the Mystery of the Mayan Kings. In this riveting journey, readers experience the world of the great Mayan Empire through the eyes of the inquisitive 11-year-old amateur Cryptologist Harley James.

Her fascination with riddles and ability at solving puzzles is the suite of skills that landed Harley a coveted member position in the ancient secret society S.M.A.L.L (Society of Mysterious Artifacts, Legends, and Lore). As a member of S.M.A.L.L, Harley flexes her sleuthing skills to uncover and solve a series of riddles, guided by the dogma of the three P's: Preserve, Protect, and Persevere.

In Harley James and the Mystery of the Mayan Kings, the young prodigy finds herself in the jungle of Tikal, Guatemala—home to the famous Mayan ruin. Here she has made the grand discovery of a legendary statue, long thought to be lost. While waiting to impress her world-famous archaeologist father, Russel James, the artifact is stolen. Knowing the catastrophe that will ensue if the statue ends up in wrong hands, Harley sets out to recover the statue. Her voyage to reclaim the statue is rigorous, fun, and entertaining, and she meets friends, makes enemies, and learns lessons.
