

Basketball Museum of Illinois Announces Partnership with Wintrust Sports Complex

BEDFORD PARK, IL, UNITED STATES, May 3, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- During the IBCA Hall of Fame Banquet on April 30, 2022, The Basketball Museum of Illinois and The Illinois Basketball Coaches Association announced a partnership with the Wintrust Sports Complex and The Village of Bedford Park, Illinois.

“We are privileged to enter into a partnership with the Illinois Basketball Coaches Association that makes the Wintrust Sports Complex the “Official Home of the Basketball Museum of Illinois” and “Home to the Best Basketball Experience in Illinois,” said David R. Brady, Village of Bedford Park President. We look forward to working with all the basketball coaches throughout the State of Illinois to become the home for youth basketball for many student athletes and their families.”

We are excited to partner with the Wintrust Sports Complex and The Village of Bedford Park as we bring our dreams to reality with this opportunity.”

Bruce Firchau

This partnership is a milestone achievement for the Museum and its Board Members who have been searching for a physical location that encompasses the vision and long-term goals of the organization. We are thrilled to partner with the Wintrust Sports Complex which hosts approximately 5,000 people from across our region during tournament weekends.

First-year initiatives include the installation of memorabilia, coaches and players clinics, development of Leadership Academy events, speaking engagements, and the creation of a Virtual Hall of Fame Experience. Museum Board President, Bruce Firchau stated “We are excited to partner with the Wintrust Sports Complex and The Village of Bedford Park as we bring our dreams to reality with this opportunity.”

About The Basketball Museum of Illinois

The Basketball Museum of Illinois is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization committed to building a positive social impact on our communities, recognizing the efforts of those before us, and building social responsibility throughout Illinois. In coordination with the Illinois Basketball Coaches Association, our goal is to preserve, honor, educate and entertain. "These stories need to be told as much to preserve the history of Illinois as to preserve the history of basketball."
