

15TH ANNUAL RIDE FOR ANGELS TO BE HELD JULY 16TH

LEXINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA,
UNITED STATES, May 4, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Hospice of Davidson County will host its 15th Annual Hospice of Davidson County Ride For Angels Saturday, July 16. The 75-mile motorcycle ride, which winds through Davidson County, will depart at 11 a.m. from Denton FarmPark, located at 1072 Cranford Rd, Denton, N.C.

Since 2008, the Ride For Angels event has raised nearly $200,000. Proceeds are designated for the compassionate care and grief support of the agency's patients and families facing a life limiting illness.

Annually, more than 200 riders participate along with numerous volunteers and community supporters.

Advance registration for the law enforcement-led ride is $20 per bike and $5 for an additional rider.

Day of registration is from 8:30-10:30 a.m. and is $25 per bike and $10 for an additional rider. Lunch is included with registration. T-shirts can be pre-ordered or purchased at the event for $15.

In addition to the ride, participants are invited to remember a loved one by placing a memento or note on the memorial wall located at the event. During the week leading to the ride, Hospice will host "Pit Stop" Nights at local restaurants/businesses to further support this cause.

For more information, to sponsor the event, to register for the ride, or to purchase and/or sponsor a t-shirt, please visit www.hospiceofdavidson.org/rfa or call (336) 475-5444.
