

Providence Film Group, A Valiant Eagle Inc. (OTC:PSRU) Subsidiary, Announces Celebrity Producers of "Ambush Karaoke"

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, May 5, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Providence Film Group, A Valiant Eagle Inc. (OTC:PSRU) Subsidiary, is ecstatic to share that it has hired several key Executive Producers and Celebrity Music Producers for its industry-first, transformational artist experience, competition TV show, "Ambush Karaoke". The theme for the show's pilot are classic songs from the 1980's and 1990's with the pilot successfully shot on Saturday, April 30th, and is currently in post-production.

The show's Executive Producers for Ambush Karaoke are icons in the music and TV industry, Paula Abdul, Ron DeShay and Xavier Mitchell. The Celebrity Music Producers (a.k.a. the show's judges) include Greg Curtis, Duck The Bass, Chico Bennett, and Paula Abdul. DeShay's company, World of Dreams Entertainment Group, will oversee production, while DeShay will personally serve as Director and Showrunner for the project.

The show is hosted by the vibrantly brilliant, Dana Belle (a.k.a. Belle Aire) who lends her recording experience to the show and fully utilizes her charismatic personality to the benefit of the challengers, Celebrity Music Producers, and the TV viewing audience.

Abdul and DeShay are both American Idol alumni that have joined the cast. Their experience in the universe of TV singing competitions is second to none and will be invaluable to making these challengers transform into their own unique artistic personas.

Ron C. DeShay has more than 20 years of experience in the entertainment industry. DeShay is CEO, President, and Founder of World of Dreams Entertainment Group. DeShay was chosen as a part of an exclusive team of producers to develop Pop Idol, American Idol's UK predecessor, for the American market. "American Idol" became the #1 show on TV, breaking all foreseeable viewership and ad sales records. Ron has received 3-Emmy Award Nominations and several Producers Guild Awards and Nominations. He's also developed and produced other top programs such as Idol Gives Back, So You Think You Can Dance, American Idol Extra, and American Juniors.

Curtis

Greg Curtis is a Grammy Award-winning music producer, Song Writer, and Singer. With over 30 years of experience in the music business, he has been the Music Director for Keith Sweat and Jennifer Holiday, to name a few. Curtis was also the Music Producer for Earth Wind and Fire, Lloyd, Christina Aguilera, Keyshia Cole, Yolanda Adams, Chris Brown, Ron Isley, and many others. Greg was a successful Executive at Hollywood Records Disney, where he signed and developed artists such as Hillary Duff, Disney star Lee Young, Nobody's Angel, and Young's Town.

I believe this will be the most impactful show in the history of television and should surpass all of its peers in terms of viewership.”

Xavier Mitchell

Duck The Bass is a classically trained Pop and Dance music producer, songwriter, DJ, and remixer based in Los Angeles, CA. She is an innovator in electronic dance music known for her unique custom-made controller for live shows used for light programming and sound effects. She was featured in the Masters Of The Craft series by Barefoot, the leading manufacturer of pro audio monitors, including a line-up of world top producers and engineers like P Diddy and Greg Wells. She was selected for the Grammy NEXT program by the Recording Academy in 2021.

Chico Bennett is a Los Angeles-based Grammy Nominated, Multi-Platinum awarded record producer, songwriter, multi-instrumentalist, and engineer who's written, produced, and remixed for such recording artists as Lady Gaga, The Black-Eyed Peas, and The Killers. Chico got his big break as a record producer at age 19 by gaining the attraction of mega star Prince. Chico's real passion is developing new artists and is currently working with new artist, Star2, who's been compared to The Kid Laroi, and Italian vocalist/pianist extraordinaire, Stefano May.

Episode 1 of Ambush Karaoke was launched in Los Angeles, CA. The show's producers identified performers with a talent for Karaoke after making talent scouting expeditions in locations in Woodland Hills, Tarzana, Burbank, and more. Xavier Mitchell, show creator and Executive Producer, stated, "I believe this will be the most impactful show in the history of television and should surpass all of its peers in terms of viewership. Original American Idol judge, Paula Abdul and our other Celebrity Music Producers are well respected in the industry and have all developed A-List Music talent."

The concept of the series involves discovering individuals with singing talent from Karaoke bars in America who have the potential to be true Music artists. "You can't judge Karaoke," said Celebrity Music Producer Greg Curtis. Ron DeShay added, "You have to assess the potential in becoming a true artist." Celebrity Music Producers are tasked with selecting three challengers per episode. (Pictured from left to right, Chico Bennett, Duck The Bass, and Greg Curtis).

Furthermore, the TV viewing audience will vote for their favorite two challengers per week to participate in the next round of auditions and competitions. At the end of this ultimate transformational experience, the TV viewing audience will vote for the first Ambush Karaoke Grand Champion.
