"I'm grateful for this honor and proud that I've been able to realize my dreams in the great state of New Hampshire," LaBelle says. "I'd like to thank each and every one of my team members, past and present, who have worked hard to help build the winery alongside me and make LaBelle a pillar of excellence in hospitality. Thanks, too, to my husband, Cesar Arboleda. He's been my partner in every sense, and has given the winery his never-ending support from the beginning."

LaBelle has built a successful business with a winery, vineyard, two restaurants, two wedding and event venues, cooking workshops, and The Winemaker's Kitchen brand of culinary products. Throughout LaBelle's entrepreneurial journey, she has given back to the community with cash and in-kind event donations to local nonprofits.

LaBelle Winery's director of business development, Michelle Thornton, says, "Amy's leadership has helped nurture innovation and create potential in the wine and hospitality industries in the Northeast. She has appropriately been called a visionary entrepreneur and pioneer. Her
