

Baksh Capital Is Moving Into Blockchain Through Blockchain Founders Fund

SINGAPORE, May 9, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Baksh Capital, a single-family office based in Singapore who traditionally invests across real estate, public equities and private investments, recognises the potential and importance of incorporating digital assets as part of their portfolio allocation, and is now actively deploying capital into the blockchain space.

In order to establish a stronger presence, Baksh Capital is working closely with the Blockchain Founders Fund \(BFF\) with the aim to support strong founders who are solving key challenges within the blockchain industry.

Birbal Singh Bajaj, Managing Director of Baksh Capital, is delighted to connect with BFF's partners and principal. "Our collaboration with Blockchain Founders Fund will help us reach out to startups in the blockchain sector that we think will add value to our growing portfolio. We're so excited to co-invest alongside a quality team and we can't wait to bounce ideas off each other."

"Birbal has been a very good friend to us, and we are happy to have him with us. We look forward to co-investing in exciting teams which are shaping the future of blockchain," Tobias Bauer, Principal at Blockchain Founders Fund, added.

Both Baksh Capital and Blockchain Founders Fund are looking forward to a fruitful partnership as they seek to navigate the fast growing blockchain space.
