

“A Little Bit Longer” No Lonely Hearts first single release

Poised for an epic single launch, No Lonely Hearts or NLH is ready to rock your world. “A Little Bit Longer” Single ORLANDO, FLORIDA, USA, May 8, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The group is made up of 5 young men hand-selected during an intense, nationwide audition process that brought together Alex, from New Jersey, Brian and Oliver both from Florida, Aidan, from Pennsylvania, and Dylan, Texas.

The 5 boys have spent the last 6 months working with top-notch choreographers, producers, coaches, trainers, and an entire development team to perfect and hone their skills in singing, dancing, and entertaining.

At the helm of the project is Grammy-nominated producer, songwriter, and entrepreneur Willie “Bum Bum” Baker. Baker may be best known for his Billboard Hot 100 #1 single “Lately” but currently he’s making BIG moves producing the hottest new boy band to emerge in over a decade at KDS One Studios in Orlando.

Drawing upon his experience with Boyz II Men, Backstreet Boys, N’Sync, and Jonas Brothers give Baker an edge when it comes to creating a hit-making, musical group.

Award-winning producers, writers, and other talent have stepped up to work with No Lonely Hearts including Lady GaGa Producer BSAMZ who wrote “Cruel Summer”, Taylor Swift producers, Andrew Fromm and Nathan Chapman, and Dakari who wrote “All Comes Back”

Ranging in age from 17 to 20, the members of NLH have a passion for music, fashion, and fun, they are poised and ready to take over the global entertainment world with their hit songs and hot dance moves.

Dylan, 20- Dylan is from Dallas, Texas. He loves thrifting, swing dancing, and making people laugh.
