

LifeTagger Empowering Power-Filled Conference 2022 on May 14

The LifeTagger+Power-Filled 2022 Experience will provide attendees with an amazing on-site experience using proximity-driven information delivery technology

CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA, UNITED STATES, May 9, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- LifeTagger, a South Carolina start-up company whose proximity-driven technology can be seamlessly integrated into a company's consumer engagement strategy, announced their partnership with the women's conference, Power-Filled 2022, to provide attendees with exclusive content and connection with everyone at the conference on May 14th at Trident Technical College Conference Center in Charleston, SC.

Power-Filled 2022 will give attendees a new way to connect on-site using LifeTagger LifeCodes. Attendees will be able to access speaker bios, special offers from vendors, connect with sponsors, and engage in dialogue with other conference attendees with a simple scan from their mobile devices. After the conference, that same LifeCode will give attendees exclusive access to recorded conference sessions, special events, and opportunities to stay connected throughout the year leading up to Power-Filled 2023.

"Helping organizations like Power-Filled stay better connected with their stakeholders has always been the driving mission at LifeTagger," said LifeTagger CoFounder Marlon Brown. "Our LifeCodes provide an easy interface which anyone can use to stay connected to what they care about and receive an enhanced experience."

Power-Filled was founded by experienced executive, coach and entrepreneur Kenya Dunn. Dunn brings her 20 year of experience to her annual event bringing women from all walks of life together to be inspired and energized by the Power-Filled stories of women from across the
