

tomate®governance Joins the DCRO Institute as an Affiliate Partner to Advance Latin American Risk Governance

The DCRO Institute will soon launch, Introducción a la Gobernanza Estratégica de Riesgos, a Spanish-language course on the positive governance of risk-taking.

The DCRO Institute is pleased to announce that tomate®governance, a Latin American advisory and executive education firm serving boards and board members, has joined the DCRO Institute as an Affiliate Partner. The goal of this relationship is to foster the development of best governance practices, especially around the positive governance of risk-taking, among its network across Latin America.

The DCRO Institute is a global collaborative of board members and c-level executives that offers a comprehensive library of on-demand courses, study programs, director development tools, networking, and sharing of best practices to foster better risk governance at organizations of all types. Affiliate Partners of the DCRO Institute bring our standard programs, as well as custom programs using our materials, to their clients. They also help the DCRO Institute to identify and disseminate local best practices to its global audience.

“Sergio Guzman, one of the founders of tomate®governance, has been an active contributor to DCRO best practice initiatives for several years,” said David R. Koenig, President and Chief Executive Officer of the DCRO Institute. “Working with Sergio and his partners will greatly expand the impact of our global initiatives and I am quite pleased they are formally joining us in this role,” he continued.

The DCRO Institute is deeply committed to serving the region where tomate®governance operates and will launch on May 23rd, Introducción a la Gobernanza Estratégica de Riesgos, the first comprehensive Spanish-language program in the positive governance of risk-taking available globally.

“David has been a regular presence in the latest editions of our flagship learning program for board members, BMP®, where our participants have been able to get a taste of the great value that the DCRO approach to risk brings to the boardroom,” said Sergio Guzman, co-founder of tomate® governance. “Our alliance with the DCRO Institute will allow us to further expand their value to our network across Latam.”

Among the programs offered by the DCRO Institute are its flagship course, The Board Members' Course on Risk®, which is taught by some of the world's leading figures in risk governance. The program features lessons by nearly 50 board members, c-level executives, and well-known authors from five continents, and graduates of the program are awarded the Certificate in Risk Governance®. Holders of the Certificate in Risk Governance® are leading in boardrooms and c-suites on five continents. Read testimonials about the program at www.dcroi.org/testimonials.
