

The Black Sheep Renegades Are Here

Nonfungible (NFT) tokens are setting sales records and one team is poised to solve a problem for collectors with their unique utility.

LAS VEGAS, NV, UNITED STATES, May 12, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- NFT's are having "record-breaking surges" in popularity, utility, and sales. In April of this year, a single NFT collection skyrocketed to almost $300M in value on OpenSea in just the first week.

Not all collections are created equal, and collectors are getting savvier with the projects they "ape" into. Introducing The Black Sheep Renegades (BSR). BSR is an NFT collection that gives holders the inside scoop on the best and newest doxxed Web3 projects.

The Black Sheep Renegade website elaborates on its mission, "While the Sheeple of the world are chasing NFT drops and getting Rekt...Black Sheep Renegades are getting access to Alpha projects and making Bank."

"The BSR NFT is an access pass to an alpha event and mastermind membership," says BSR Co-Founder Jason Myers. "It creates a massive solution to the problem that many NFT investors have: Finding valuable projects, early, to get involved in".

In addition to the Alpha benefits for BSR holders, there is a complete roadmap of other utilities being added to each Genesis BSR NFT, with airdrops in the works, contests, and many other giveaways.

With only 1780 available to mint for genesis holders, it's easy to see why this collection might not be available for long.
