We Level Up treatment center network is proud to join a prestigious organization like NAATP and join in the mission of providing trustworthy and highest level of care to our clients and families."

Alexandra Krotkevich, CEO We Level Up Personal rehab centers network

We Level Up, a top-rated treatment center has joined the National Association of Treatment Providers (NAATP).

Founded by Industry leaders in 1978, NAATP is a nonprofit organization that represents hundreds of not-for-profit and for-profit addiction treatment provider members. Who offer critical care along with a full continuum of care, from interventions, private therapy, outpatient care, residential inpatient, and long-term rehabilitation programs. Among the NAATP's missions is "to provide leadership, advocacy, training, and member support services to ensure the availability and highest quality of addiction treatment.

NAATP represents and promotes the interest of addiction treatment centers dedicated to providing the highest quality and most effective treatment for substance abuse. The National Association of Addiction Treatment Providers (NAATP) also works to promote, assist and enhance the delivery of ethical, effective, research-based treatment for alcoholism and other drug addictions. NAATP will seek to accomplish this mission by; (1) providing its members and the public with factual, trustworthy information and other resources connected to the treatment of addiction disorders; (2) supporting increased access to and availability of quality therapy for anyone suffering from alcoholism and other drug addictions; and (3) working in combination with other organizations and professionals that share NAATP's missions and values.

The We Level Up treatment center network is proud to join a prestigious organization like NAATP and join in the mission of providing trustworthy and highest level of care to our clients and families. Stated Alexandra Krotkevich, CEO of We Level Up addiction rehab centers network.

The addiction industry faces complex issues such as insurance utilization, parity enforcement, changing treatment therapies, ethics, and professional training. Addiction treatment providers cannot operate effectively in isolation. Hence, the We Level Up addiction treatment network is constantly searching for opportunities that help improve the experience and pedigree of the care we provide to patients and their families.
