

Customers can now order hair systems on a subscription basis from Superhairpieces

Hair system customers can now receive their stock or custom made orders on a yearly subscription basis from Superhairpieces.

SUNRISE, FLORIDA, USA, May 9, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Hair replacement system customers can now receive their orders on a yearly subscription basis.

Superhairpieces, a leading human hair system supplier in North America, recently launched its new subscription program.

With no added fee to join, clients can now receive anywhere from three, four, six or 12 hair systems of their choice throughout the year. This will include stock as well as custom made hair systems.

This subscription program will give customers a peace of mind and also serves as insurance.”

Ryan Tran

The main benefit of the program is that clients will no longer have to worry about placing an order or whether their items will be in stock. Instead, their orders will be automatically charged when they are shipped out.

Selected hair systems will also have their prices locked in at the time of subscription. This means if there are any price increases on a particular hair system, customers will keep paying the same price at the time of their subscription.

Additionally, using the subscription program ensures that customers receive systems with consistent quality as they will all be made by the same ventilation worker.

“This subscription program will give customers a peace of mind and also serves as insurance. Things are unpredictable in the industry, but with this new program, customers no longer have to worry about placing orders, price changes or their preferred units being out of stock,” said Superhairpieces customer success specialist Ryan Tran.

“We encourage all clients to consider this program and reach out to our customer support team if they have any further questions.”

This move comes following customer demand for more subscription programs in the hair system industry following the recent demise of HairDirect earlier this year.

As things stand, the subscription program is currently only for men's hair systems.
