SUNRISE, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, May 10, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The last few years have hit the logistics industry hard. But, through it all, Zero Down Supply Chain Solutions has been working hard to give businesses the knowledge and tools they need to navigate their supply chain issues. Continuing those efforts, CEO and President of Zero Down Supply Chain Solutions, Brad McBride, has recently published an article with PARCEL Magazine, outlining one area shippers can take matters into their own hands: filing carrier claims.

Filing carrier claims can be difficult in the best of times, but McBride walks readers through it step by step, pointing out potential hazards along the way. Along with providing insights into the claims process itself, McBride explains why it's so important in the first place, and how it can benefit everyone involved.
