Our AI solutions are a market disrupter and are accelerating business processes, data analysis and customer service to deliver dramatically increased results,”

Ashley Mehta, CEO & President, Nolij Consulting

Nicknamed the Stevies for the Greek word meaning “crowned,” the awards will be presented to winners at a gala ceremony at the Marriott Marquis Hotel in New York on Monday, June 13.

More than 3,700 nominations from organizations of all sizes and in virtually every industry were submitted this year for consideration in a wide range of categories, including Startup of the Year, Executive of the Year, Best New Product or Service of the Year, among others. Nolij was nominated in the Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning Solution category for their technology behind the Full Contract SCAN (FCS) Artificial Intelligence (AI) Tool developed for a federal government agency. The platform enables scanning millions of structured and semi-structured acquisition data to identify and categorize like items, compare pricing and availability, and confirm the most efficient path to procurement and delivery of key goods and services.

“Nolij is thrilled to have won the Silver Stevie® Award for our AI and ML applications,” said Ashley Mehta, Chairwoman, CEO, and President of Nolij Consulting. “Our mission is to deliver innovative solutions that consistently redefine the boundaries of Health IT and keep our clients future-ready. Our AI solutions are a market disrupter and are accelerating business processes, data analysis and customer service to deliver dramatically increased results.”

More than 230 professionals worldwide participated in the judging process to select this year’s Stevie Award winners. A Stevie judge remarked in reference to the FCS application that “more of such tools are needed to ensure cost savings in terms of procurements and ensuring a product reaches the right place at the right time” and that the “AI driven search is very powerful.”

“We are so pleased that we will be able to stage our first ABA awards banquet since 2019 and to celebrate, in person, the achievements of such a diverse group of organizations and individuals,” said Maggie Miller, president of the Stevie Awards.
