“

MasterPieces makes sure to offer products that appeal to avid sports fanatics as well as casual fans with products that fit into many categories.”

David Rolls, President of MasterPieces, Inc.

David Rolls, President and Founder of MasterPieces, explained, “MasterPieces makes sure to offer products that appeal to avid sports fanatics as well as casual fans with products that fit into many categories. Faithful fans can have a proud way of incorporating their passion for a favorite team whether it is through various holiday décor and collectibles, playing a game, assembling a puzzle, playing with toys and even cooking. It’s extra special when your favorite team is in the midst of the activity.”

The new NFL All-Time Greats, 500-piece puzzles (MSRP $19.99) are a perfect example of MasterPieces continuing effort to offer fans fun sports related products. Featuring some of the most famous blasts-from-the-past, illustrated as fun and colorful characters, makes these puzzles perfect for fans of all ages. Each scene specifically represents the team's city, name, history, and fan favorite players.

The sports products are a significant portion of MasterPieces nearly 600 new products this year. The extensive product offerings are attributed to the unprecedented jigsaw puzzle demand and at-home entertainment options, as well as the obsessive enthusiasm among sports fans.

MasterPieces, annually recognized as a Global Licensee Leader, prides itself on staying true to its license properties. The company products vary from popular character properties for preschool games and crafts and well-known seasonal puzzles and games, to classic outdoor licensed brands and popular artist puzzles and games. MasterPieces is the emerging market leader in providing high-quality collegiate, professional sports league, and individual team licensed sports toys, games, puzzles and accessories.
