- Shortest Fish

The Kids Fishoff tournament was held in person and virtually via the social media platform, Instagram.

Participants of the contest had to catch a fish and post them on Instagram with a photo from the location it was caught and sized up with the LHPYC-approved ruler given. For each post, participants received a raffle ticket.

“Seeing the excitement on a young angler’s face when they catch a fish gives me pure joy and happiness," Said Mitchel Zelman, a fishing committee member. "The kids who went out there showed what it's like to participate in a contest for the fun and love of the sport - creating happy memories".

Mitchel was excited to be there to announce the winners of the Kids Fishoff Contest and present them with their well-deserved awards.

As an active member of the Fishing Committee of Lighthouse Point Yacht Club, Mitchel continues to raise awareness of sustainable fishing practices in the yacht club and the community. Mitchel hopes to set a good example for young anglers and avid fishers alike.
