2022 TITAN Property Awards Architecture Winner of the Year

“Once again, the 2022 TITAN Property Awards has received phenomenal designs and concepts that will shape the future of properties, which are essential in creating the foundation towards significant establishments,” said Thomas Brandt, spokesperson of IAA. “This leads us to the celebration of those with honorary accomplishments in the field of property, giving recognition to these titans who light the path to revolutionary infrastructures, not to mention the jury panel that has provided their expert assistance and insights on shaping the limitless possibilities of real estate.”

Grand Jury Panel

To fully embrace the true potentials of the stalwart entries, the expertise of certain individuals in the property industry were called upon, so that the entire process is kept unbiased and impartial. Some of these esteemed individuals include: Fadi Krieker (Qatar), Benjamin Caleja (Spain), Kourosh Salehi (United Arab Emirates), Naresh V Narasimhan (India), Mr. Ben Dickison (United Kingdom), James Liang (China), and more.

“To bear witness to the birth of remarkable property experts is incredibly worthwhile,” said Thomas. “I anticipate exponential growth in the coming years of the industry, with the limits being broken to create an environment that nurtures future pillars in the field.”
