/EINPresswire.com/ -- According to
'Ceramics Global Market Report 2022 –
Market Size, Trends, And Global
Forecast 2022-2026' published by The

Business Research Company, the ceramics market size is expected to grow from $107.72 billion in 2021 to $114.11 billion in 2022 at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 5.94%. The growth in the market is mainly due to the companies' rearranging their operations and recovering from the COVID-19 impact, which had earlier led to restrictive containment measures involving social distancing, remote working, and the closure of commercial activities that resulted in operational challenges. As per TBRC's ceramics market research the market size is expected to reach $145.93 billion in 2026 at a CAGR of 6.34%. A rise in the construction industry is expected to propel the growth of the ceramics market.

The ceramics market consists of sales of ceramics by entities (organizations, sole traders, and partnerships) that manufacture ceramics. Ceramics are inorganic, non-metallic materials created by forming and sintering natural or synthetic compounds at high temperatures. They are generally made by mixing clay, earthen elements, powders, and water and shaping them into desired forms. They have several properties such as high melting temperatures, chemical inertness, ruggedness, and low thermal and electrical conductivity, and are hence used in diverse applications such as pottery, bricks, tiles, cement, glass, gas turbine engines, and others.
