

Has Humankind Ever Been More Broken Than Now?

Writings of the Late Dr. Noomen Preach 'Connectedness'

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, May 11, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Does it sometimes seem as if political parties, the country and perhaps the entire world has fallen into an unprecedented morass of divisiveness and animosity? Read the news, turn on the TV, listen to the radio or just eavesdrop on conversations. Has there ever been a time when civilization was any less agreeable? Can anything be done to help fix this rampant and dangerous antagonism?

Author and scholar Dr. Pieter Noomen wrote at length about his belief that "all is connected."

For present humans, this connectedness is severely disturbed. And it shows. Yet, in you, 'all is connected' waits to be recognized and be applied positively. "

Dr. Pieter Noomen

Author and scholar Dr. Pieter Noomen wrote at length about his belief that "all is connected," and although he passed away three years ago, his writings are still available to all, free, anytime, on his website (www.wordsforall.org). Among the 12 "booklets" he posted is one he called "Connectedness."

"If on your inner level you do connect with the universal sphere, boundaries blur," Dr. Noomen wrote. "You then experience that your universal links are not vague or impractical at all. You can hook up to a world that poses no threat and lets you know and feel that."

Dr. Noomen's writings speak largely about his belief system and often refer to messages he said he received from a higher power, but his words can resonate with all, regardless of faith. The booklet on "connectedness" is written in first-person, with the "I" being the higher power that he believed spoke to him.

He begins the booklet thus: "One of the most amazing statements I make is related to this 'all is connected;' not that the fact itself that all is connected is surprising, as you observe it on earth ... but indirect all-connectedness makes good sense. You and, say stars, are separate worlds; yet what is in between serves as link. And so it is with everything. All that exists is acting in the same play of being. Let the word play conjure a sphere of playfulness, team spirit and adventure."

That may sound like Pollyanna wishful thinking in 2022, but what if the Russians and Ukrainians, the pro-life and pro-choice folks, the Republicans and Democrats, and all the other so-called diametrically opposed groups could look at civilization as one big family?

"Truth has ways to overcome confusion, to a point of restoring clear vision," Dr. Noomen wrote. "For this, you've the whole eternity at your disposal. So do not worry or panic. Realize the sixth component of being well-connected is already a part of you. For present humans, this connectedness is severely disturbed. And it shows. Yet, in you, 'all is connected' waits to be recognized and be applied positively."

Minister and licensed psychotherapist Dr. Pieter Noomen

Born in the Netherlands, Pieter Noomen worked as a psychotherapist and staff member at a Los Angeles church. He completed doctoral studies in theology and pastoral psychology at the Free University of Amsterdam and became senior minister of three Protestant churches.

An example from Dr. Noomen's Wisdoms of the Week from his website, as we continue to hold out hope that better days lie ahead:

"It seems scientifically proven that laughing is good for our health. (I still regret that I can't even tell a joke. Sorry!) Yet I know a source that always lets me smile inside. That happens when I realize how awesomely great the universe is and how tiny I am. And much more, when I realize that this Totality of all, Life in its full volume, is essentially a love reality."
