SHERIDAN, WYOMING, UNITED STATES, May 16, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Altruistic Joe's coffee is the answer for those searching for that perfect cup of java. This innovative brand is the brainchild of husband and wife business partners, Libby and Jamie Jenks. They envisioned a company committed to impeccable service while delivering a superior product.

Jamie was a featured guest on the thought-provoking Samantha's West podcast. Samantha's show is a resource to supply her audience with entertainment and interviews with philanthropic and entrepreneurial guests. Jamie's appearance was well received and informative. The Jenks are dedicated to the community, and together they are reaching parent-led sports teams and large non-profits. More recently, this dynamic duo expanded their focus to include privately run initiatives, whether individual philanthropists, local businesses, church groups, or local fundraisers that can benefit from selling a new blend, fashioned especially for them. Each product comes complete with its own charitable coffee label.
