“I am extremely awed to have feast my eyes upon all the entries that are truly captivating, seeing exponential growth in terms of quality and meaning,” exclaimed Thomas Brandt, the spokesperson for International Awards Associate (IAA). “The whole world deserves to be amazed by the marvellous wonders portrayed through the images, like a hidden story waiting for the right person to explore, which is mind-blowingly fantastic.”

Grand Jury Panel

Through the ever-flowing creativity pouring through from the entries, the jury panel has taken up the task in the discovering of what each photographer has to tell. They brought upon their dedication and high standards to the table, fully prepared for the creativity as presented by the entrants. The panel consists of individuals with great contribution to the industry, namely Emanuel Kapp (United States), Kalina Schneider (United States), Patrizia Burra (Italy), José Martinez Silva (Portugal), Donell Gumiran (United Arab Emirates), Zhou Wen Jun (China) and other renowned members.

“At the London Photography Awards, we are able to portray to the world alluring imageries beyond imagination, while we continue to advance towards a heightened level of photography,” stated Thomas. “There are so many possibilities to be found within photographers, especially when they are immersed in their respective cultures and norms, which paves the way for the future of the awards to receive better entries as the next season arrives.”
