

"Do or do not. There is no Try!" Becomes The Nurses Wall Challenge to Take Back Stolen 'Year of the Nurse' Celebration

The Nurses Wall Challenge is free, easy, and takes very little time ... yet it's perceived as "priceless" by the world's pandemic-battling hero nurses.

PACIFIC PALISADES, CALIFORNIA,
UNITED STATES, May 13, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- 2020 was to the "Year of the Nurse."

Covid-19 stole it.

Until now, Covid-19 and virus mutations prevented its recovery.

Operation Scrubs is the 2022 mission to take it back; THE NURSES WALL, a nurse-appreciative public, and 'thank you' message postings are the weaponry.

Do or do not. There is no try.”

"May 12 ended "Phase One" of The Nurses Wall construction and this year's National Nurses Week celebration; May 13 starts "Phase Two" of THE NURSES WALL message-posting challenge, which continues until midnight, December 31 (New Year's Eve).

quotes Yoda, the mythical Star Wars Jedi Master's "Do or do not. There is no try" combat advice.
"Not try but do -- that's the action needed for this nurse-honoring mission to succeed.

"Other good reasons are there's no cost to participate. It's easy to do. And it takes only a few minutes to post a virtual 'thank you' message on The Nurses Wall. Yet," Nye emphasizes, "the perceived emotional value for these unsung hero nurses is both infinite and priceless."

"Famous means celebrated and distinguished references about someone or something widely and favorably known," explains Nye. "And here's a unique opportunity to achieve lifetime fame that comes with the success of The Nurse Wall mission."

Let's all be famous - and proud," Nye challenges. And during your New Year's Eve celebration, log on to The Nurses Wall. Find your name. And reflect that you touched and will infinitely make a difference in the lives of 20+ million unsung hero nurses!
