VIRGINIA, U.S.A, May 19, 2022
/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Wall Street Bitcoin is a Crypto Token backed by the performance of the original Bitcoin.

Unlike 21 Million Bitcoins, only 5,250,000 The Wall Street Bitcoin tokens were created. The gains of The Wall Street Bitcoin price are 25% of the actual dollar gain in Bitcoin. Starting at a price of $0 in January 2021, The Wall Street Bitcoin is now priced at over $7000+.

A revolutionary Stop Loss Mechanism, calculated by using the all-time high price of The Wall Street Bitcoin is integrated into the smart contract. This prevents the price of the token from falling below a certain level. With the current stop loss price set at $3429, the price of The Wall Street Bitcoin will never go below that.

The Wall Street Bitcoin cannot be bought or transferred to a wallet, nor can it be traded on an exchange. They are specifically created as collateral to back The Wall Street Bitcoin Crypto-NFTs.
