services are available at affordable costs and are managed by a professional team of agents. Patent and trademark renewal services also mitigate the risks and overdue that are associated with renewal of intellectual property assets. Over the recent years, robust platform and management software have been developed to manage IP portfolio in a reliable and secure way and this has contributed to the revenue growth of the market going ahead.

Growing need to streamline registration processes, availability of cost-effective alternatives to conventional IP renewal processes, and increased efficiency of renewal services have further contributed to revenue growth of the market. However, lack of awareness about patent and trademark renewal services is expected to restrain market growth to a certain extent over the forecast period.
