

Fight hair loss, wrinkles; shop climate-change values; MedTech, edu, consumer startups pitch -- streaming live 25 May

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, May 19, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Five startups will pitch for funding from investors and coverage by journalists during a press conference that streams live, online, Wednesday, 25 May 2022, starting at 11 am EDT.

ShowStoppers, <https://www.showstoppers.com/>, and Keiretsu Forum SoCal, <https://www.k4social.com/>, will introduce:

- Advanced Medical Device Technologies, <https://advancedmdt.com/> -- Disruptive medical technologies that improve patient safety, reduce costs and enhance outcomes -- warming intravenous fluids, packed red blood cells and frozen plasma; an all-in-one respirator/ventilator; and disinfection units that eradicate COVID 19 and other viruses.
- Charlot BioSciences, <https://www.cbio.io/> -- Ensuring that gene therapy works as expected with CellPhoresis®, analytical equipment that uses machine vision, edge computing and novel separation science techniques.
- Domain-U, <https://www.domain-u.com/> -- An experiential training and eLearning platform with on-demand, "learn by doing" interactivity -- to help companies improve employee recruitment, success, revenues.
- Softly, <https://www.shoppingsoftly.com/> -- A search and recommendation engine that works on any shopping site, making it easy for shoppers to support climate change, human rights and personal values.
- Yuva Biosciences, <https://www.yuvabio.com/> -- Restoring mitochondrial function to fight aging -- hair loss, skin wrinkles, fertility, menopause.

Each company presents for five minutes, followed by breakout rooms for one-on-one questions.

The startups are mentored by ShowStoppers partner Keiretsu Forum SoCal, a region within Keiretsu Forum, a worldwide network of 3000+ accredited investors in 64 chapters, with capital, technology, talent, resources and deal flow that to date has invested more than $1B USD into seed, early-stage and late-stage companies, led by healthcare and medical devices, consumer products, and environmental and emerging technologies.
