ALMONT, MICHIGAN, UNITED STATES, May 18, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Bill Duggan has been named a contributing author for the admired industry publication, ThinkAdvisor. In addition to his expanding authorship, Bill is a well-known asset protection educator. He has guided thousands of seniors as they navigate their financial retirement options.

ThinkAdvisor provides registered investment advisors and financial advisors with comprehensive coverage of the products, services, and trends necessary to guide their clients in making critical wealth, health, and life decisions. We celebrate those who are adapting and succeeding in new ways, and we translate the impact of regulations and technology into digestible, shareable information so you can spend more time advising clients and running your business.

Bill has been guiding clients to manage their financial lives since 1988. Bill spent 13 years in banking as a Trust Officer in Florida and Michigan, five years as a broker with Smith Barney in Troy, MI, and has owned his firm since 2004, located in Almont, MI, which is 40 miles north of Detroit.

At the end of 2014, Bill exited his practice's securities side to offer only "Safe Money" programs for his clients. While providing "At Risk" investments such as mutual funds, ETFs, and individually managed portfolios of stocks and bonds as a licensed securities advisor, and now as a "Safe Money" professional exclusively, Bill has always put his clients' interests first.

Annuity.com has a simple mission.

Educate people about annuities and help them determine whether an annuity is right for their retirement portfolios. We provide unbiased information on a multitude of topics needed to make optimal decisions for our own specific needs. Because we are not an insurance company, we have been able to remain a consumer-focused site, providing timely, objective, and quality information since 1995.
