

Launch of the Justice ForOM Summit Series and EcoVWear Fashion Show to Combat Racism and the Climate Crises on May 21

The events, organized by International Justice Alliance and Global CitiZen Sentinel, will be held at the Marwah Estate in Malibu with celebrities and activists.

MALIBU, CA, UNITED STATES, May 19, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Fashion designers and activists will converge for a good cause to battle the ongoing climate crises and racial disparities at the launch of the Justice ForOM Summit Series and the EcoVWear Fashion Show. The events, which are organized by International Justice Alliance and Global CitiZen Sentinel, will feature numerous celebrities, philanthropists, and influencers supporting the event at the cliffside Marwah Estate in Malibu.

International Justice Alliance's mission reflects the words of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr:

"We must see now that the evils of racism, economic exploitation, and militarism are all tied together. And you can't get rid of one without getting rid of the other."

This exclusive fundraiser addresses the disturbingly similar root causes of racial hate crimes, racial injustices, and climate crises. The events include the inaugural Justice ForOM Summit

Series intended to help conscientious brands positively impact climate change, and provide innovative strategies to combat racial disparities. An expert panel will discuss investments in equitable eco opportunities, ways to eliminate wrongful convictions, and prevent hate crimes in the wake of the Buffalo massacre. The EcoVWear Fashion Show will also hold a moment of silence to remember victims of violent hate crimes.

"Racially-motivated injustices continue in the U.S. and have a devastating effect on the lives of men and women, especially Blacks and Hispanics. We hope the thoughtful discussions that come from this historic summit will lead to changes in policies that do more harm than good for minorities in America," said Timothy Milner, Board Member of International Justice Alliance.

Guest speakers at the event include several influential experts: Bart Fisher (Nobel Peace Prize nominee); Obie Anthony (Activist, founder of Exonerated Nation); Marvin Mutch (Activist, Director of Advocacy at the Prison Reentry Network); Paul Stewart (Reform Activist and Oscar Award Winner); and David Greenwald (founder of Davis Vanguard); Pastor J. Edgar Boyd (Senior Minister of the First African Methodist Episcopal Church of L.A.); Amy Povah (Filmmaker and Founder of CAN-DO Foundation); Anita L. Wills (Author, Activist); Patty Lopez (Former CA State Assembly Member and Founder Mujer Alpha); Dr. Bobby Kalotee (Chairman of Friends For Good Health); Sajjad Ali Taj (Councilmember City of Artesia); Dr. Madeline McClenney (Founder of Exodus Foundation); Dr. Sanjana Jon (Social Activist and Fashion Designer); Jani Vishwanath (Founder Healing Lives in Dubai) and Rajendra Vora (Founder of Jain Social Group).

would ring hollow. In instances, where due process was clearly violated and where evidence of factual innocence was not presented to the jury/adjudicators (sometimes due to "newly discovered", but in some instances, as a result of it being withheld by some malicious police/prosecutors) the need to ensure post-conviction relief could not be more compelling.
