The DCRO Institute, a global nonprofit focused on bringing risk expertise to the boardroom and c-suite, announced today the award of the prestigious Certificate in Risk Governance® to Michelle Thomson of Boulder, Colorado, in the United States.

Michelle knows how leaders can be most effective in the boardroom when facing serious challenges or bringing in new ideas. She brings vast experience and an important perspective to her work.”

David R. Koenig, President and CEO, The DCRO Institute

Michelle has over 30 years of experience across multiple industries including investment banking, trading, insurance, and reinsurance with firms like Credit Suisse, Duration Capital Management Advisors, Citi, and CNA Insurance. She has served in leadership positions facing high consequence decisions both as a catastrophe reinsurance portfolio manager and 10 years as a co-CEO/board member. Michelle is the founder of Clear Ripple LLC, where she engages in executive coaching and advisory with a focus on clients also in those high consequence positions, including crisis management. She earned her MBA from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business, a BS from The Wharton School, and an MA in Religious Studies from Naropa University.

"Michelle and I have had many fruitful conversations about how leaders can be most effective in the boardroom when facing serious challenges or bringing in new ideas," said David R. Koenig, President and Chief Executive Officer of the DCRO Institute. "She brings vast experience and an important perspective to professional development that we are pleased to offer to our board ascendancy candidates, especially as she is equally dedicated to professional growth herself," he continued.

Michelle participated in our second guided study cohort dedicated exclusively to women executives and board members. "The program delivers practical insights and advice from those in the field. It skillfully guides one through up-to-date research, frameworks, and practices around this evolving world of risk governance," she said about the overall program and that experience. "It's been a pleasure," she continued.
