

Rare Signed Michael Jordan Card Made From Basketball Court Floor Immortalizing The Last Shot Of MJ's Career Goes On Sale

Offered is the very first 1/1 autograph card of Michael Jordan. This iconic Upper Deck card encapsulates Jordan's Historic Last Shot of 1998 NBA Finals Game 6.

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, USA , May 19, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A rare 1999-00 Upper Deck Final Floor Michael Jordan 1/1 card is currently on offer in the Goldin May Elite Auction. This historic card is the very first Michael Jordan 1/1 autographed card ever made. The card is graded at a 10 autograph PSA (Professional Sports Authenticator), 6 EX-MT (Excellent-Mint) with a Population 1 of 1 with none in the world graded higher.

Michael Jordan, often regarded as the greatest athlete of all time, with poetry-in-motion game-filled electrifying plays, dominating in many statistical categories, 6 rings in 6 finals appearances, 10 scoring titles, 5 most valuable players, with the last shot story-book ending to his perfect career. A moment often quoted as the clutchest moment in sports. Jordan's influence extends beyond generations through his legacy and brand. The Last Dance documentary series further enhances his popularity and status during the social media age. His top sports cards and game memorabilia are extremely coveted among hardcore collectors and ascend to prime asset class levels in investor and institutional portfolios.

The absolute crown jewel of Jordan Bulls autograph and the first issue in hobby history to offer 1/1 autograph for Michael Jordan.

This historical card is the first ever 1/1 autograph card put out by Upper Deck. That alone makes it historically significant. It features MJ's Last Shot Game 6 of the 1998 NBA Finals to win the game."

Ken Goldin

Michael Jordan, autograph, and 1/1 are three sweet terms in the world of basketball collectors and investors. With the addition of a floor relic from MJ's final game with the Bulls where the last shot happened, you have an unbeatable combo, with immense appeal and upside. This iconic card encapsulates MJ's historic last shot. The autograph is in perfect shape without skip and the floor is immaculate without cracks.

Upper Deck competed with Fleer/Skybox's creative parallel and insert game plan using its game-used autograph elements during the 90s era. At the turn of the century, Upper Deck gradually overtook market share and this historically significant release with artistic execution played an important role. This Final Floor 1/1 auto is highly regarded in the collecting community as one of the top 2 Jordan auto cards ever made, together with the comparable first game jersey auto in 1997 GJ13S. The latter has a 23 print run and is depicted in an all-star jersey. Notably, this Final Floor 1/1 auto card is arguably MJ's best Bulls autograph sports card.

The Goldin May Elite Auction is live and ends on May 21. Chairman and founder Ken Goldin emphasized, "This historical card is the first ever 1/1 autograph card put out by Upper Deck. That alone makes it historically significant. The card features Jordan during the historic Last Shot Game 6 of the 1998 NBA Finals to win the game. The last dance, running off the floor, victorious, Jordan knew this was the last game he would ever play in the NBA, at least for the Chicago Bulls. What makes this card unique is that it is the first 1/1 ever for autographs of Jordan, and it's the largest piece of memorabilia ever issued by any card manufacturer on a Michael Jordan pack-pulled trading card. The photo and the event are the pinnacle of Jordan's career."

Asset Attributes & Provenance:

- The absolute crown jewel of Jordan Bulls autograph and the first issue in hobby history to offer 1/1 autograph for Michael Jordan.
- Trading card company Upper Deck purchased the Game 6 hardwood floor at the Delta Center for an estimated $1 million in October 1999.
- The first time ever a floor memorabilia piece from the NBA Finals Game 6 when MJ made the last shot, the pinnacle of his perfect career and Finals rating.
- The single most desirable autograph card for Michael Jordan in Bulls uniform based on historical significance, rarity, and design.

- The memorabilia piece remains the largest that is embedded in a regular-sized card to this date, after 22 more years of all releases by various card manufacturers.
- The card has not been offered for sale in public during the last 10 years.
- The only example from this historical set that appeared in the PSA population.
- The last shot theme is a moment almost universally ranked as the greatest sports moment of all time. Focus is finals MVP, the highest honor of the most important stage.
- The Jordan image shows an MJ holding up his fingers to celebrate his 6 rings, which became a winning celebration tradition in all sports.
- One of the most important and desirable trading cards produced in the past quarter-century.
- A similar Jordan autograph card GJ13S with 23 copies printed, often compared with this Final Floor 1/1 auto (and both sold similar 10 years ago), sold for $2.7 million via Goldin private sale in October 2021, after $2,052,000 sale of another example in Goldin May Elite Auction 2021.
- Another Jordan 1/1 auto memorabilia in 2009-10 Exquisite (issued 10 years later to this Jordan Final Floor 1/1) is offered for fractionalization at $1.8 million valuation at Liquid Marketplace platform.
