Anyone interested may sign up to attend the June 6, 2022 meeting at 8:30 p.m., and is encouraged to participate, practice leadership, and find their voice.

Founding member Joshua Edwards had this to say, “we are an inclusive, safe space to practice public speaking. Everyone is welcomed.”

Member Christopher Day added, “A lot of court reporters and stenographers struggle with speaking. This is a point in time where there are a lot of voices in our industry trying to speak over the women and men making the record. This club provides a place to craft our message and figure out what works.”

The court reporting & stenotype services industry has seen a dramatic increase in consumer awareness publications and educational materials in recent years. The speaking skills honed at StenoMasters are useful for creating such content in various forms, including videos, streams, vlogs, and presentations.
