Flavia, writes, films, and edits her shorts and plays multiple characters using different wigs. When asked what drew her to comedy and filmmaking, she answered "It gives her something to do". Visit her YouTube page for many other funny characters in compromising positions and memorable moments from one of sketch comedy's budding flowers.

Flavia Natalia studied creative writing at Mercy College then went to Stella Adler Acting Academy where she was taught by the great Alice Winston, who told Flavia she would be a great actress - as soon as she stopped walking like that.

Growing tired of auditioning for McDonalds commercials, she decided to take a summer film editing workshop at NYU continuing education where she got certified in Avid and Final Cut Pro. After that she did absolutely nothing with any of that because her fiancé told her to be realistic and go get a job as a dental hygienist or something. She left that fiancé, 7 years later.

Now, Flavia has combined her writing, comedy skills with acting and editing and has been
