

Children's Book Author Sherrill S. Cannon Wins 100th+ Book Award

Most authors would be thrilled to win one or two book awards during their career. Sherrill S. Cannon has just won her 100th award!

JUPITER, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, May 23, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The New Hope, Pennsylvania, author said she just received first prize for My Little Angel Coloring Book from Maincrest Media.

But before this announcement could even be made – Cannon won her 101st award – as a finalist by Indie Book Awards for The Golden Rule Coloring Book!

Once upon a time, back in 2009, Strategic Book Publishing and Rights Company (SBPRA) published a children's Christmas book written by Sherrill titled Santa's Birthday Gift. It became one of the publisher's bestselling children's books. The holiday title garnered many awards and accolades, and remains a holiday favorite for children and parents alike.

Now, in 2022, not to our surprise, but to our absolute delight, Sherrill has just received her 100th award for her books.”

“We then went on to publish 12 more of Sherrill's children's books (three of which also became coloring books), all featuring messages of love and kindness and inclusion, and all award winners. We also published two of her poetry books for adults, and yes, you guessed it, they also won awards,” said Lynn Eddy, VP of Acquisitions for Strategic Book Publishing.

"Now, in 2022, not to our surprise, but to our absolute delight, Sherrill has just received her 100th award for her books, and we want to shout it from the rooftops how incredibly thrilled we are for her. She has been a friend to us from the very beginning and we absolutely adore her." Eddy added, "CONGRATULATIONS, SHERRILL!"
